

PORTER METROPOLITAN POLICE COMMISSION
Minutes

November 18, 2008

The Porter Police Commission meeting was called to order at 6 p.m. In attendance were Karen Pisowicz, President; William Donley, Vice-President; Linda Hodges, Commissioner and Police Chief Jamie Spanier. Town Council Liaison Jon Granat was absent.

Donley made a motion to accept the October 21, 2008 minutes. Hodges seconded. Motion carried 3-0.

Spanier reported the department is still getting quite a few calls. The department has started the seat belt/DUI patrols the last few days but there aren't enough results to report to the commission. Next month should have a report. Because of the snowstorm there were a lot of slide-offs but no accidents. The department was out last night helping on I94 which ~~was~~ had a lot of black ice.

Spanier also noted that each peddler in town needs a separate license. You can't get one license and hand it out to many people. Porter's license isn't good in Chesterton and Chesterton's license isn't good in Porter. Not-for-profits and newspapers are exempt.

Hodges talked with Granat and he conveyed that the commission is doing a good job.

Meeting adjourned 6:10 p.m.

Respectfully submitted
